

Year Long Exchange Application

The Kent Auburn Tamba Sister City Organization is a non-profit self-funding agency. Our mission is to enable youth from the cities of Kent, Auburn, and Tamba; Japan, to learn more about each other, through educational, social, and cultural exchanges, and to promote understanding, appreciation, friendships, and international peace.

Should you be selected as a youth ambassador for the Year Exchange Program, you will be required to participate in the planning and operation of activities. This includes meetings, fundraisers, group events, and a cultural and language workshop.

Qualifications

- Submit the completed application forms, and documentation prior to: January 31, 2018
- The Student and Parents/ Guardians agree to a home stay in Japan the equivalent of a school year or 6 months minimum
- The Student must be currently enrolled in a High School or High School equivalent program such as home school in the Kent or Auburn school districts and have no juvenile, or criminal convictions.
- The applicant must be 18 years old or younger and have not received a High School Diploma, or General Education Diploma.
- All residents 18 years of age or older may be subject to a background check
- A Japanese language competency test (administered by the Japanese language programs in the High Schools) must be submitted with the application forms. Check with your School District for the nearest available Japanese program.

- Purchase the round trip airline tickets and provide KAT information regarding the cost, departure and returning dates and times.
- Take adequate spending money to cover personal, miscellaneous expenses, medical co-pays, travel fees (additional or excessive baggage weight), etc.

During your stay in Japan

- Show respect for the Japanese culture and your host family
- Learn the expectations of your host family regarding rules for your safety, curfew, use of electronic devices, chores, laundry, etc. Share your expectations of your home stay in Japan with your host family.
- Create a letter of understanding with your host family at the beginning of your home stay and adhere to the rules that you have agreed upon. This will serve as a useful reference during your home stay.
- Participate in activities with your host family. If the activity conflicts with your own religious beliefs or values, you should discuss these concerns with your host family and help them to understand why you cannot participate
- You are required to give several speeches in Japanese to various Japanese audiences
- Make new friends; be a good friend
- Represent your family, city and country well by showing exemplary behavior at all times
- Update KAT with monthly reports of your experience in Japan via Facebook, KAT page, emails, blogs, or letters. Highlights of your experience will be used by KAT to promote the Year Exchange Program.
- Wear conservative clothing during your stay in Japan. Refrain from wearing ripped, immodest, backless, strapless, extremely short, or dirty looking clothing.
- Your conduct and personal appearance reflect our American values.

Upon your return to the US

- Send thank you cards or letters to your host Family, Japanese School Principal and others
- Participate in Committee group activities and monthly meetings (usually 3rd Monday of each month) through to the end of Summer 2019 and promote the KAT Youth Ambassador program.
- One project summarizing your experience in Japan is required upon your return, usually during the September monthly meeting; examples might include: power point presentation, creating a web page, an Article for the school paper, or Middle and High school visitations

Family Responsibilities

Fundraiser Events

- Each family will participate in all monthly meetings, fundraiser meetings, work parties, and two annual KAT Fundraiser events (late April – early May) through to the end of Summer 2019
- One fundraiser event must be completed by the ambassador and their family; the second may be completed by the ambassador, or their family if the ambassador is still in Japan
- Each family will contact at least 10 businesses for a donation
